

A day with author Nayanika Mahtani

Author Nayanika Mahtani interacted with Class 8 students of The Brigade School, Mahadevapura on July 26 as part of its annual Meet The Author programme.

"You don't find stories, they find you," was the author's message for the students as she gave insights into the making of two books, Ambushed and The Gory Story of Genghis Khan. She started with an interesting trailer of her book and engaged the audience with a fun quiz.

INSPIRING TALK

Students took home the message that history is all about perspectives and each story that needs to be told has two sides. The event concluded with a book-signing session wherein the author autographed her books for the young audience.

School spreads message of oneness

Students enthral with performances